Finger posts are the ideal way to guide and assist pupils and visitors around your site. Supplied with an aluminium tubular post in a colour of your choice, with a tasteful finial fitting. Directional finger panels come with a double-sided design as standard. Many schools are now using Finger Posts to promote their values in playgrounds, at the front of school or even using them as a learning tool to show flag and distance detail for countries around the world. All our Finger posts come with a 12mm deep return edge, to guarantee performance - 2 year guarantee!
